

The Release

A Spotlight on SCIM

Issue #1

April 2008

Purpose and Rationale of The Release

The purpose and rationale of the newsletter will be to publish information and raise awareness of SCIM around JMU's campus. It will focus primarily on facts that are relevant to people associated with the school, but it will also have a section with general facts for students considering joining the school.

The public for this newsletter will be students and faculty of JMU. The faculty section will be limited to faculty members associated with the school. The students section will also focus on students in the school, but will also have a section of general information for students considering joining the school.
